

(c) if not, the reasons for delay in holding the draw;

(d) if the draw has been held, the details of the successful applicants category-wise, separately; and

(e) the time by which the flats are likely to be allotted to successful applicants?

THE MINISTER OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI SHEILA KAUL): (a) The total number of applications received category-wise under Ambedkar Awas Yojana, 1989, is as follows:—

Category	No. of applications
M.I.G.	7123
L.I.G.	20903
JANTA	9922
Total	38018

(b) and (c) The Ambedkar Awas Yojana envisages holding of two types of draws—first for preparation of priority list of successful registrants and the second for allotment of flats. None of these draws has been held and allotments of flats made so far. This is mainly due to stay orders from the High Court and the time taken to process the applications.

(d) Question does not arise.

(e) All successful registrants are likely to be allotted flats by 1994-95.

[Translation]

*297. SHRI RAM BADAN: Will the Minister of WELFARE be pleased to state:

(a) the number and details of cases of atrocities on scheduled tribes/harijans/tribals registered during the last six months state-wise;

(b) whether the Government have formulated any policy to check/reduce such atrocities; and

(c) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF WELFARE (SHRI SITA RAM KESRI): (a) Based on the information available, two statements (Statement No. I for Scheduled Castes and Statement No. II for Scheduled Tribes) are attached.

(b) and (c) The Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989, has been passed to prevent commission of atrocities on Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. The Act provides for stringent punishments. Special Courts are set up and Special Public Prosecutors appointed for speedy trial of cases of atrocities under the Act. The Act provides for relief and rehabilitation to the victims of atrocities. The Government of India share the cost of the implementation of both the Protection of Civil Rights Act, 1955 and the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act, 1989 with the State Governments on a matching basis (50 : 50). The Government have issued detailed guidelines covering precautionary, preventive, punitive and rehabilitative measures to State Governments to check crimes against Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.
