

(b) if so, whether Government propose to place these Rules on the Table of the House;

(c) if the Rules have already been framed, why they have not yet been published;

(d) if the answer to part (a) above be in the negative, why no Rules have yet been framed; and

(e) whether by any order in March 1949, pending the publication of Pensions Rules for the I.A.S. and I.P.S., the additional pensions which were being allowed to Provincial Service officers, formerly holding listed posts and appointed to the I.A.S. or I.P.S. have been stopped?

The Minister of Home Affairs and States (Dr. Katju): (a) Not yet.

(b) and (c). Do not arise.

(d) It was not possible to decide the terms of retirement benefits for I.A.S. and I.P.S. till decisions were taken on the Central Pay Commission's recommendations in this regard for the Central Services. The details of the Pensionary benefits to be made admissible to all-India Services are being worked out in consultation with the State Governments.

(e) Yes. It was one of the recommendations of the Central Pay Commission accepted by Government that additional pensions which were formerly admissible to holders of certain posts should be discontinued.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES IN INDIA

41. Dr. P. S. Deshmukh: (a) Will the Minister of Education be pleased to state the most recent figures with respect to the number of primary schools, secondary schools and colleges in India with the number of students attending the same?

(b) To what year do these figures relate and how do they compare with the figures for the previous year?

The Minister of Communications (Shri Jagjivan Ram): (a) A statement giving the required information for the years 1948-49 and 1949-50 is placed on the Table of the House. [See Appendix II, annexure No. 15.]

(b) There was an all-round increase in the number of institutions, as well as, in the enrolment.

KITCHENER COLLEGE

42. Shri M. L. Dwivedi: Will the Minister of Defence be pleased to refer to starred question No. 887 asked on the 13th December 1950 and state whether the buildings of the Kitchener College of Military Training at Nowgong have since been utilised for any other purpose?

The Minister of Defence (Shri Gopalswami): It has not been possible yet to utilise the buildings of the Kitchener College at Nowgong. The question of moving the King George Military College from Jullundur to these buildings at Nowgong is under active consideration by the Government of India.