

representation of Hindustan Lever for retention of foreign majority holding and state how long the action of contravention of the regulation by Hindustan Lever, subsidiary of Uni Lever, U.K., for making the third party exports without permission of the Reserve Bank of India has been under consideration of the Government and the reason thereof?

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE (SHRI R. VENKATARAMAN): The Reserve Bank of India sought specific instructions of Government in June 1981. The matter has been pending with Government since Inter-Ministerial consultations are necessary before taking action against any company for violation of EERA provisions and since the Central Government decision on this company's representation for retention of 51 per cent non-resident share-holding will be an important consideration on the question whether there has been contravention of the FERA by the company on this point.

Reservation in Allotment of Staff Quarters to SC/ST Employees in L.I.C.

3375. SHRI M. ARUNACHALAM: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:
