THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI SOMPAL) : (a) Yes, Sir. The Government have already established 261 Krishi Vigyan Kendras in 255 districts. Further, there is a proposal to strengthen the Zonal Agricultural Research Stations (ZARS) of the State Agricultural Universities (SAUs) to take up the additional functions of KVKs in 53 districts. The opening of KVKs in the remaining districts will depend upon the availability of adequate funds for the purpose.

(b) to (d) The locations of the existing 261 KVKs and 53 districts proposed for strengthening of the Zonal Agricultural Research Stations to take up the additional functions of KVK is given in Statement-I and II enclosed.

The criteria for setting up of such centres are the districts with low productivity & high potentials, coastal and tribal districts of backward and hilly regions and high productivity having irrigation & other infrastructural facilities.

(e) and (f) The mandate activities of the KVKs include vocational skill-based training of farmers, front-line demonstrations, on-farm testing and inservice training of extension functionaries to update their knowledge and skills in modern agricultural technology including fruits & vegetables. So far, the existing KVKs have organised 1.35 lakhs training programmes to benefit 30.76 lakhs farmers during 1977-78 to 1996-97. Out of these, about 24 thousand training programme in horticulture (fruits & vegetables) were organised to benefit 4.89 lakhs farmers.

(g) Twenty KVKs were set-up during the last three years out of 78 KVKs approved for establishment during 8th Plan. State-wise details are given in Statement- III & IV enclosed.

(h) and (i) The working and achievements of KVKs have been evaluated by the nine Quinquennial Review Teams (QRTs) in 1993. The recommendations of the Committees have been implemented for improving the functioning of these Centres.
