

Correction of Speeches by Members

In order to achieve the objective of paperless Parliament, Hon. Members are requested to access their speeches from Lok Sabha Website <https://sansad.in/ls> → 'Business' → 'Debates' → 'Uncorrected Debates' of a particular day and print them for confirmation and correction of inaccuracies, if any, which might have occurred in the process of reporting. Hon. Members are also requested to make legible corrections in ink, if any, and then send duly signed scanned copy of the same to the Editorial Branch by email at: editorial.ls@sansad.nic.in Besides, this practice of receiving correction in speeches by e-mail, hard copies of such corrections are also accepted in the Editorial Branch. Hence, Hon. Members including Hon. Ministers may also send duly signed and corrected transcript of their speeches to Editorial Branch, Room No. 510, Parliament House Annexe, New Delhi.

As per rules, the following may please be kept in view that only minor corrections, namely, those in respect of grammatical errors, misreporting of quotations, figures, names etc. are permissible. Improvement of literary form or altering substance by additions, copious substitution or deletions are not admissible. Hon. Members including Hon. Ministers are, therefore, requested to make only the said permissible corrections to ensure their correct incorporation in the final edited version of Debates. Please ensure that the proposed corrections are legible.

Kind co-operation of the Hon'ble Members is solicited.

Permission for Reproduction of Material from Lok Sabha Debates

Kind attention of Hon. Members is invited to Rule 379 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha which, inter alia, states that full report of the proceedings of the House would be published under the directions of the Speaker. Similarly, Rule 382 (1) provides that the Speaker may authorize printing, publication, distribution and sale of any paper, document or report in connection with the business of the House. The copyright of Lok Sabha Debates vests in the Hon. Speaker. As such permission of Hon. Speaker is required for reproduction of any material from the Lok Sabha Debates under the Copyright Act.

Hon. Members are requested that they may seek prior permission of the Hon. Speaker whenever they intend to publish any material from the Lok Sabha Debates. Editorial Branch of the Secretariat processes the cases relating to the grant of permission for reproduction of material from Lok Sabha Debates.

Kind co-operation of the Hon. Members is solicited.
