- (b) if so, the details thereof including the objectives behind the introduction of the new portal;
- (c) whether all the data related to ongoing and past proposals has been successfully migrated to the new portal; and
- (d) if so, the details of the steps taken to ensure continuity?

ANSWER

MINISTER OF STATE FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT

(SHRI B. L. VERMA)

(a) to (d) The Department of Empowerment of Persons with Disabilities (DEPwD) has developed and deployed a dedicated e-Anudaan Portal for submitting and processing proposals under the Deendayal Divyangjan Rehabilitation Scheme and the District Disability Rehabilitation Centres scheme. The new portal is available at <https://grants.depwd.gov.in>.

The objectives behind introducing this new portal include, inter alia, streamlining the processing of Grant-in-Aid proposals.

To ensure continuity, the complete migration of data to the new portal has already been carried out. Additionally, instructions have been issued to all stakeholders to exclusively use the portal for the submission of fresh applications as well as for accessing previously submitted proposals.
