Welfare of Agricultural Labourers

4991. DR. RAMVILAS VEDANTI : Will the Minister of LABOUR be pleased to state :

(a) the schemes being considered under Ninth Five Year Plan for the welfare of the Agricultural labourers by the Government and details thereof;

(b) the amount to be allocated for this purpose;

(c) whether the Government have conducted any survey of agricultural labourers, and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR (SHRI M. ARUNACHALAM) : (a) During the Ninth Five Year Plan, in addition to continuance of a variety of existing rural development and poverty alleviation programmes like Integrated Rural Development Programme (IRDP), Jawahar Rozgar Yojana (JRY), Development of Women & Children in Rural Areas (DWCRA), Employment Assurance Scheme (EAS) and National Social Assistance Scheme (NSAS) which inter-alia benefit agricultural labourers, the Govt. are considering enactment of a comprehensive legislation to regulate employment, conditions of service and to provide certain welfare measures to the agricultural workers.

(b) Since the legislation is proposed to be implemented through the existing machinery and the welfare measures are proposed to be financed mainly by employers' contributions, no funds have been allocated for the purpose.

(c) and (d) The Government have been conducting Agricultural Labour Enquiries since 1950-1951 to collect data on wages and earnings, employment and unemployment, income, indebtedness etc. of the rural labour households. These have since been integrated with quinquennial surveys of NSSC on general employment and unemployment. Agricultural workers are also enumerated along with general population in the decennial census. In Addition National Commission on Rural Labour (1987-91) also made an in-depth study into the socio-economic conditions of agricultural workers along with other rural workers
