Answer

MINISTER FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI M.VENKAIAH NAIDU)

(a) to (f) & (i) to (k) The Employment Assurance Scheme (EAS), and the Jawahar Gram Samridhi Yojana (JGSY) are the two major Schemes in operation to provide additional wage employment in the rural areas of the country. These schemes are implemented throughout the country except Chandigarh & Delhi. Both of these schemes stand merged with the Sampoorna Grameen Rozgar Yojana (SGRY) w.e.f 25.9.2001, which is also being implemented throughout the country except Chandigarh & Delhi. Under the Scheme, 50 lakh tonnes of foodgrains amounting to Rs. 5000 crores (at economic cost) will be provided every year, free of cost, to the State Governments and Union Territory Administrations. The remaining funds (Rs. 5000 crores) will be utilized, to meet the cash component of wages and material cost. The payment of foodgrains will be made by the Ministry of Rural Development to the Food Corporation of India (FCI) directly. The Scheme aims to provide about 100 crore mandays of employment every year in the rural areas. The SGRY will be implemented in two streams. The first stream will be implemented at the District and Intermediate Panchayat levels and the Second Stream will be implemented at the Village Panchayat level. 50% of the total available funds under the SGRY will be utilized to provide 5 kgs. of foodgrains per manday as part of wages. The balance of wages will be paid in cash so that the workers are assured of the notified minimum wages. The SGRY will be fully in operation from the next financial year. Since the Scheme has been launched in the middle of the current year, the ongoing Schemes of the EAS and the JGSY, which will get fully submerged with the new Scheme, will be continued for the current year as a part of the SGRY. A statement showing state-wise allocation of funds and foodgrains under SGRY during the current financial year is given at Annexure - I & II.

(g) & (h) Statements showing financial and physical progress of the Employment Assurance Scheme (EAS) and Jawahar Gram Samridhi Yojana (JGSY) during the last three years are given at Annexure III to X.
