- (b) the percentage of their total expenditure, the administrative and developmental expenses constitute;
- (c) the amount of such support demanded by the respective State Governments; and
- (d) how much amount was required and the amount spent on the security related matters?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE

(SHRI BALASAHEB VIKHE PATIL)

(a), (b) & (c) : Central Assistance is given to States for meeting their developmental expenditure as per allocations made by the Planning Commission. Plan allocations are decided by the Planning Commission after taking into account the requirements of the States, the States' own resources for plan implementation and on the basis of the discussions held every year between the Deputy Chairman, Planning Commission and the Chief Ministers of the States. A statement indicating the Central Plan Assistance given to each one of the North-Eastern States during the last three years is given in Annexure-I. Plan allocations for the year 2000-2001 are yet to be decided by the Planning Commission. Being Special Category States, the North-Eastern States are allowed to divert 20% of their Normal Central Plan Assistance for meeting non-plan expenditure.

(d): Security Related Expenditure is reimbursed to the North Eastern States in accordance with the guidelines laid down for the purpose. A statement indicating the amounts sought by the North Eastern States and the amounts released to them during the last three years towards security related expenditure is given in Annexure-II.
