(a) whether the Government has signed any Memorandum of Understanding with China to extend co-operation and broaden exchange in employment, vocational training and social security;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the benefits likely to be accrued therefrom?

Answer

MINISTER OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI K. CHANDRASEKHAR RAO)

(a): Yes Sir. An MOU with Govt. of People's Republic of China was signed on 25th October 2005 extending an existing MOU for a further period of three years for cooperation in employment, vocational training and social security.

(b) & (c): The agreement is to broaden the cooperation between the two countries in the field of employment, vocational training and social security. The areas precisely identified are labour and social security legislation, measures and policies of employment promotion, labour relations, policies on vocational training and social security and any other area of mutual interest.
