NOMINATED MEMBERS OF TAC
Verma Shri Bhanu Pratap Singh

Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY be pleased to state:

- (a) the norms being followed for appointment of Member in the Telephone Advisory Committee;
- (b) the number of Members nominated to the Telephone Advisory committee on the recommendation of each Member of Parliament;
- (c) the details thereof, member-wise;
- (d) the number of letters from the Members of Parliament related to the TAC forwarded by the PMO to the Ministry of Communications & Information Technology; and
- (e) the action taken by the Government thereon?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS AND INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY (DR. SHAKEEL AHMAD)

(a) The Telephone Advisory Committees (TACs) are constituted Secondary Switching Area (SSA) wise and the norms followed for appointment of members in the Telephone Advisory Committee

(TAC) are as follows:-

The members of TAC are taken from all segments of society such as Social Workers, Press, Trade, Commerce, Industry, Medical and other professionals etc.

Each Member of Parliament may recommend five names of eminent persons from his/her constituency to be considered for nomination in the TAC.

The Hon'ble Members of Parliament shall be members of only one TAC falling within their constituency by virtue of their office. In case of nominated Rajya Sabha MPs, they may be nominated in the TAC falling within their adopted constituency [with regard to the constituency adopted for Member of Parliament Local Area Development (MPLAD) programme.

However, Hon'ble MPs who become ministers shall not be nominated/cease to continue in the TAC.

When appointments are made, all efforts are made to ensure that all segments of society are appropriately represented.

(b) & (c) Member of Parliament-wise list of the number of members nominated to TAC on their recommendation is given in the Annexure.

(d) & (e) Letters from two Hon'ble Member of Parliament (Lok Sabha) forwarded by PMO regarding nominations for TAC have been received and the same are under process.

NUMBER OF MEMBERS IN THE TAC, RECOMMENDED BY THE HON'BLE MPs (LS), STATE-WISE AS ON 8.12.2005
