- (b) the number of the Deemed Universities accorded approval during the last three years;
- (c) the details of proposals received from various State Governments for granting "Deemed to be University" Status as on 31st January, 2006, State - wise;
- (d) the action taken by the Government or University Grant Commission thereon; and
- (e) the mechanism available to assess the quality of education imparted by the Deemed Universities and also to watch the exercise of autonomy by such Universities, particularly in financial matters?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI M.A.A. FATMI)

(a) to (e): A statement is laid on the Table of the House.

STATEMENT REFERRED TO IN REPLY TO PART (a) TO (e) OF LOK SABHA STARRED QUESTION NO. 229 FOR 7TH MARCH 2006 REGARDING DEEMED UNIVERSITIES ASKED BY SHRI SANJAY DHOTRE AND SHRI BAPU HARI CHAURE:

(a) and (b): There are 100 institutions, declared as 'Deemed to be University', as on date, in the country. During the last 3 years, i.e. from January 2003 till date, 25 institutions have been accorded the status of "Deemed to be University".

(c) and (d): Applications for granting "Deemed to be University" status is made by the institutions themselves and not by the State Governments. An institution is notified as a "Deemed to be University" by the Central Government on the recommendations of the University Grants Commission (UGC), in terms of the provisions of the UGC Act, 1956. As on 31st January 2006, no proposals for "Deemed to be University" have been received from the State Governments.

(e): The institutions notified as "Deemed to be Universities" function in accordance with the provisions under their Memorandum of Association, Rules & Regulations, which provide for an appropriate authority to manage the administrative, financial and academic affairs of these institutions and, Representatives of the Central Government and the UGC are represented on it. The UGC in exercise of its statutory authority maintains and coordinates standards of higher education in all such institutions, which enjoy autonomy in managing their affairs.
