Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SRIPRAKASH JAISWAL)

(a), (b) & (c) : At the Home Secretary level Talks with Pakistan on terrorism and drug trafficking held in May, 2006, the Indian side handed over a document, inter-alia, containing specific and detailed information of the terrorist training camps and infrastructure that continue to exist in Pakistan and Pak Occupied Kashmir. In order to cover up their inaction to dismantle terrorist infrastructure in their territory the Pakistani side also gave a list of so-called terrorist training camps purportedly operating in India. At the Talks itself, the Indian side clarified to Pakistan that India does not support terrorism in any form and that no terrorist training camps exist in any part of India.
