Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS (SHRI SURESH PACHOURI)

(a) to (e): The Government has already been nominating civil servants for various training programmes in public policy conducted by premier institutions in India which inter alia include premier management institutes also. The Government had started nominating civil servants for training in public policy programmes at Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore since 2002-03, TERI School of Advanced Studies, New Delhi and Management Development Institute, Gurgaon since 2006-07 and Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad in 2007-08. Officers attending such training programmes are required to furnish a bond to serve the government for a period of three years on their return to duty from such training. No case of breach of aforementioned bond has been brought to the notice of this Department.
