

Title: Reported decision of the Government to resume military assistance to Nepal.

SHRI VARKALA RADHAKRISHNAN : Sir, this is regarding the reported decision of the Government of India to resume military assistance to Nepal. After the dismissal of the Government and banning all political activities, this reported decision is a serious matter. Military assistance is no solution to the Maoist insurgency. It is a political process and it has to be dealt with by the Government elected by the people. ...(Interruptions)
