Title : Reference made regarding the loss of several lives in the Serial bomb blasts in Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh on the 7th March, 2006.

MR. SPEAKER: Hon. Members, I am sure all of you would join me in strongly condemning the most heinous acts of violence that have been committed at Varanasi yesterday in which about 14 innocent people have been killed and also more than 100 persons injured. The senseless acts of violence are being committed in a nefarious attempt to disturb the even tempo of our life and to affect India's unity and integrity. Our people should, in a united manner, continue our fight against such acts of terrorism and violence. We reiterate our strong resolve never to surrender to such criminal acts and we resolve to maintain peace and tranquillity and complete harmony amongst all the citizens of our country.

We deeply mourn the loss of lives and express our sincere condolence to the members of the bereaved families and also convey our best wishes for the early recovery of those who are injured.

The House may stand in silence for a short while, in memory of the deceased persons.
