BULLETIN—PART I

[Brief Record of Proceedings]

Monday, April 6, 1987|Chaitra 16, 1909 (Saka)

No. 236

11 A.M.

1. Starred Questions

Starred Questions Nos. 552—558 were orally answered. Replies to the remaining questions were laid on the Table.

2. Unstarred Questions

Replies to Unstarred Questions Nos. 5635—5661, 5663—5676, 5678—5776, 5778—5842, 5844—5851 and 5853—5865, were laid on the Table.

3. Ruling by the Speaker

Speaker informed the House that he had received several notices under rule 222 seeking to raise a question of privilege against the Minister of State for Finance for deliberately misleading the House while replying to the discussion under rule 193 on 31st March, 1987 on the question of engaging the FAIRFAX GROUP of the United States by the Ministry of Finance. He had also received notices for discussion on the subject under rules 184 and 193 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in Lok Sabha as well as notices under Direction 115 of Directions by the Speaker.

In his reply dated 3rd April, 1987, the Minister of State for Finance, to whom he had referred all the notices for comments, had pointed out that the only basis for the allegation was a news item published in a daily paper purporting to be the statement of a foreign national. The Minister had added that whatever he had said in reply to the debate in the House was based on the information and on the records available with the Government and there was no attempt or intention on his part to conceal the facts or to mislead the House.

The Speaker, inter alia, observed that every Minister was a Member of Parliament, was part of Parliament and responsible to the House. Once he made a statement on the floor of the House it was presumed that it was made with full sense of responsibility and it was to be accepted as such unless incontrovertible evidence to the contrary was brought before the House. In the instant case, the Minister's statement was sought to be controverted only on the basis of certain statements made by certain individuals as published in the newspapers. In the absence of any authentic information, he had to rely on the Minister's statement on the floor of the House. As there was nothing to prove that the Minister made an incorrect statement or one deliberately to mislead the House, he had ruled out all notices of breach of privilege on the subject.

With regard to notices under Direction 115, Speaker observed that the Minister of State for Finance had reiterated in his letter of 6th April, 1987, that whatever he had said in the House on 31st March, 1987, was based on the information available with the Government in the Finance Ministry.

The Prime Minister had made a statement in the House on 3rd March, 1987, announcing the appointment of a sitting Judge of the Supreme Court to go into the entire affair with a view to set all controversy at rest. He had received a notice of breach of privilege and several notices under rules 184 and 193 demanding a discussion on the statement. Speaker reiterated that the House was fully entitled to discuss all matters of public importance involving ministerial responsibility to the House. The notices under rules 184 and 193 seeking discussion on the Prime Minister's statement were, therefore, both admissible. He was leaving it to the House to have full discussion on the same either under rule 184 or under rule 193. Speaker added that discussion could be held rightaway if the House so desired. However, if the Government desired to further clarify the statement made on Friday, they could do so.

The Deputy Speaker informed the House that he had received notices under Rule 222 from Sarvashri Ram Singh Yadav, Pratap Bhanu Sharma and Shantaram Naik on 31-3-1987 seeking to raise a question of privilege against the Times of India, Hindustan Times, Indian Express and the Statesman for giving advance publicity to the notice of motion for removal of Speaker in their issues of that date. Even before the notice of a resolution for removal of the Speaker was received by the Secretary-General as required under rules, it was widely and repeatedly mentioned in the press that such a notice was being given.

The Deputy Speaker, inter alia observed that giving of advance publicity to notices for raising matters in the House was in contravention of Rule 334A of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business. According to well establish Parliamentary practice, usage and conventions, it was improper, although not technically a breach of privilege or contempt of the House to give, for any reason, premature publicity in the press to notices of motions etc. This may, however, invite the censure of the House on a proper motion or displeasure of the Speaker but could not be allowed to be raised as breach of privilege or contempt of the House. He, therefore, ruled out all the notices of breach of privilege on the subject.

✓ 8. Resolution Rê: Removal of the Speaker from Office

Shri Somnath Chatterjee moved a motion for leave to move the following Resolution:—

“That this House having taken into consideration the rulings of the Speaker of the House including the one on March 19, 1987 on the question of privilege and adjournment motions feels that by denying to the Members right to raise vital constitutional and procedural issues and burning problems, the Speaker has ceased to command the confidence of all sections of the House and therefore resolves that he be removed from his office.”

The Deputy Speaker asked those members who were in favour of leave being granted to rise in their places. As not less than fifty members rose, the Deputy Speaker announced that leave to move the Resolution was granted and that it would be taken up for discussion at 3.30 P.M. and concluded by 5.30 P.M. that day itself.
