BULLETIN-PART I

(Brief Record of Proceedings)

Monday, March 11, 1996/Phalguna 21, 1917 (Saka)

No. 422

11 A.M.

1. Starred Questions

Starred Question Nos. 141, 142 and 144 were orally answered. Replies to Starred Question Nos. 143 and 145-160 were laid on the Table.

2. Unstarred Questions

Replies to Unstarred Question Nos. 1139-1367, 1370 and 1371 were laid on the Table.

3. Observation by the Speaker

The Speaker made the following observations:

"I would like to read out what the hon. leaders of the parties in principle, not exactly in the same words, wanted that an expression to the views expressed by them in the House should be given on the floor of the House. In the meeting of the leaders of the parties held in my Chamber, I was asked to give expression to the views of the Members of Parliament regretting and resenting the sweeping observations made against the Parliament and the Members of the Parliament. Before it could be done, the High Court of Delhi has expunged the objectionable observations and has said as follows:

'In the present case, there was no occasion for the learned

Additional Sessions Judge to make comments either against the Parliament or its proceedings or against the Parliamentarians or politicians. He ought to have confined himself to the specific issue before him and dealt with the said question and nothing else'.

'Lords Corman in Duport Steel Limited versus SAS Weekly Law Report 142 has observed as follows:—

'If people and Parliament come to think that the judicial power is to be confined to nothing other than the judges' sense of what is right, confidence in the judicial system will be replaced by fear of it becoming uncertain and arbitrary in its application.'

Again Abraham Lincoln has said as follows:—

'Nearly all men can stand adversity. But if you want to test a man's character, give him power'.

"This statement applies again in the quotation of what the judges of the High Court have said:

'This statement applies to all forms of power including the judicial power. Judicial power also requires to be used with great restraint. In fact, greater the power, greater is the need for restraint. The learned Additional Sessions Judge totally exceeded the normal limitations imposed by judicial restraint in making uncalled for observations against the Parliament, its proceedings, Parliamentarians and politicians. The remarks extracted above are hereby expunged'.

"These are the views expressed by the Hon. High Court. What has been done by the High Court is very judicious and meets the ends of justice and can be appreciated. And that is the spirit in which all the wings of the State should function in the interest of justice, welfare of the people and unity of the country. Mistakes committed by the individuals here or there should not reduce the respect and regard the persons working in all the wings of the State have for one another, for the people and the State and the unity of the country, and should not be corroded or reduced. The balanced judicious and correct Constitutional approach adopted by all would be in the interest of the people, the ends of justice and the unity of the country.

"I think, in view of these developments and observations by the High Court, nothing more need be done by this Parliament."
