3. The Resolution—Adopted

The Speaker placed the following Resolution before the House:—

“This House

—RECALLING the determination of the peoples of the world, in the aftermath of the Second World War, to save future generations from the scourage of war through the establishment of the United Nations as a forum for resolving global problems and for the betterment of conditions of economic and social well being through cooperative action;

—CONSCIOUS of the unique contribution made by this world organisation over the last forty nine years to peace, security and development;

—ALSO CONSCIOUS that notwithstanding the efforts of the United Nations, international economic relations continue to be characterized by inequality, domination and exploitation, eradication of poverty remains a distant goal, and serious armed conflicts persist in the world;

—CONSIDERING that the 50th Anniversary of the United Nations provides an important occasion for governments and peoples around the world to rededicate themselves to the purposes and principles of the United Nations and to reaffirm their commitment to work for ushering in a new era of global peace and economic and social development of all peoples on the basis of equality and justice;

(1) WELCOMES the decision of the United Nations General Assembly to commemorate the 50th Anniversary in an appropriate manner in furtherance of the theme “We the peoples of the United Nations..... united for a better world”;

(2) REITERATES its belief that as the United Nations, the embodiment of multilateralism is uniquely placed to promote a more just, equitable, prosperous and secure world order, it should be strengthened to reflect current political and economic realities and contribute to enhancing the common welfare on the basis of international cooperation, mutual respect and global partnership.

(3) REAFFIRMS our abiding commitment to the United Nations.

and reiterates our determination to build upon the achievements of the United Nations Organisation and utilize its potential in order to advance our shared aspirations of peace, security and prosperity.

(4) HOPES that the restructuring and strengthening of the UN including the Security Council will reflect current realities and enable it to realise the principles and purposes enshrined in its Charter, for the interest of peace and progress of all humankind.

The Resolution was adopted by the House unanimously.

(Due to continued interruptions in the House, Lok Sabha adjourned at 12.06 P.M. and re-assembled at 2.05 P.M.).
