'Hon. Members, the Members of all Parties— the Opposition and the Ruling — had expressed their views on the Report given by JPC and the Action Taken Report on the same given by the Government. I am sure they had done so to arrive at the correct conclusions and the truth in the matter.

In a democracy and the Parliamentary system as per the laws, rules, norms and conventions on matters of interest for all, demonstrations are made, discussions are held and decisions are taken. In the instant matter too, all these devices and methods were used to highlight the views of the Members of the Parties. At the same time, precautions were taken to see that the decent norms of the game are followed by all concerned and institutions and the systems were not allowed to be hurt, because of which the agreement arrived between the Parties has been possible.

It is really satisfying and heartening to see that all the Leaders from all the sides and Parties did their best to stick to their points of views as well as to see that the prestige, dignity and efficacy of the system is kept vibrant, effective and intact.

Very very sincerely I thank them all, all the senior Leaders, other leaders and others who have shown a lot of understanding in this respect and who have done their best in the matter. But for their understanding and sense of duty towards the cause and the system the present understanding between them would not have been possible, for which everybody who values the system and the cause would be grateful. The agreement reached between all Parties with respect to the Action Taken Report is as follows:

“The points on which action is not taken, the points on which action is partly taken and the points on which objections have been raised by Members of the Opposition shall be reconsidered by the Government and a revised and modified Report on those points shall be submitted by the Government to the House as early as possible.”
