3. Announcement by Speaker re: Televising the proceedings of the House

The Speaker made the following announcement:—

“The question of televising the proceedings of the House was discussed with the Leaders of the Parties and Groups, the Ministers of Parliamentary Affairs and Information and Broadcasting, the concerned officers of the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, the CPWD and the Lok Sabha Secretariat. The matter was briefly and informally discussed at the meeting of the Leaders of Parties and Groups also. It has been considered by the General Purposes Committee of Lok Sabha. It has also been considered at a joint meeting of the General Purposes Committees of Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha on 26 November, 1991. The consensus arrived in these meetings was as follows:

- (i) that the proceedings in the House may be televised.
- (ii) that, at the initial stage, the Question Hour may be televised.

- (iii) that, at later stages, proceedings relating to legislation, the financial and other important matters may be televised.
- (iv) that, the detailed modalities in this regard may be worked out by the agencies concerned and approved by the Presiding Officer.
- (v) that the matters which are held by the Presiding Officer as unparliamentary and not in keeping with the decorum of the House may not be televised.
- (vi) that a trial for televising the proceedings may be held on any day as may be decided by the Speaker.
- (vii) that the actual televising of the Question Hour may be started on a day as may be decided by the Presiding Officer.
- (viii) that, as and when necessary, the matters pertaining to it may be considered in the Business Advisory Committee.
- (ix) that since the time available at the initial stages is limited, the televising has to be done to fit in the available slot.
- (x) that the telecasting may be done on an experimental basis.
- (xi) that further necessary steps in this regard may be taken on the basis of the experience in this respect.

I hope these arrangements will receive the approval of the House".

The House agreed.

3. Announcement by Speaker

The Speaker made the following announcement:—

“Hon’ble Members, during the discussion on the Demands for Grants of the Ministry of Agriculture, a number of members had expressed their anxiety with regard to the increase in fertilizers prices. While replying to the discussion, the Minister of Agriculture had inter alia assured the House that a Parliamentary Committee would be set up to look into the functioning of the fertilizer industry.

The Minister of Agriculture accordingly wrote to me on October 8, 1991, requesting me to constitute such a Committee.

I am now happy to announce that a Committee consisting of 11 members—7 from this House nominated by me and 4 from the Rajya Sabha nominated by Hon’ble Chairman—has been constituted under
