MR. SPEAKER: Nothing is going on record. I have not allowed it. Mr. Madhukar, Calling Attention.

श्री राजनाथ सोनकर शास्त्री मैं सदन से वाक-आउट करता हूँ।

Shri Rajnath Sonkar Shastri then left the House

12.14 hrs;

(Interruptions)

SHRI SAMAR MUKHERJEE (Howrah): Yesterday the issue was raised in the Business Advisory Committee meeting. You were not reluctant to allow a discussion. But you said, in some suitable form it should be raised. That is what I recall.

(Interruptions)

MRS. SPEAKER: I said like this. Because the discussion on the Home Ministry's Demands is to take place, we should utilise this forum to give expression to whatever the Members feel because, this is also Home Ministry's Demands...

SHRI SAMAR MUKHERJEE: It is not about Law and Order.

.. (Interruptions)

MR. SPEAKER: Let me complete it.

(Interruptions)

MR. SPEAKER: If there was anything left behind, if the Home Minister does not reply, I said, we will consider it in some other form. That is what I said.

(Interruptions)

MR. SPEAKER: The Business Advisory Committee unanimously adopted it. I will stick to that.

(Interruptions)

MR. SPEAKER: I think this is utterly insulting to the Business Advisory Committee.

(Interruptions)

I also asked the Business Advisory Committee to lay down what is important, so that we can discuss each item one by one.

(Interruptions)

MR. SPEAKER: No. Calling Attention—Shri Madhukar.

(Interruptions)

SHRI CHANDRAJIT YADAV (Azamgarh): On the first day I brought it to the notice of the House under Rule 377 with your permission.

MR. SPEAKER: I allowed it.

SHRI CHANDRAJIT YADAV: You are saying that no discussion will take place. This is not a question of discussion only....

MR. SPEAKER: I cannot allow it.

SHRI CHANDRAJIT YADAV: Why can't the Home Minister make a statement,
