of the part-time employees in these offices should be revised suitably. When we demand that the private sector should pay adequate salary, it should be ensured that the Government also pays adequate salary to its employees.

Indian commemoration stamps are so beautiful that they have become prized possessions all over the world. The first-day cancellation covers are also in great demand. Since India has become the paradise of a philatelist, it must be ensured that the first day covers are not despoiled and the cancellation should be done carefully, so that the value is not lost.

With these words I conclude my speech.
