

of Bangladesh that there would be no question of giving any assistance to the Mizo National Front. We both have agreed that local machinery would be set up to ensure that both sides make adequate arrangements to deal with any troublesome elements which may create border problems in that area.

By a happy coincidence I not only visited Bangladesh on the anniversary of the declaration of the Republic of Bangladesh but also as their first official guest after Government responsible to the newly elected Parliament had been sworn in. The House will notice that the visit gave me several opportunities to discuss with the President and Ministers of the Government of Bangladesh a very wide range of bilateral subjects and also to exchange views on the regional and international situation.

Finally I would like to place on record my feeling of gratitude to President Zaur Rahman and the members of his Government for the cordiality, friendship and spirit of understanding which they displayed during the entire visit and the hospitality extended to us. I have also extended an invitation to President Zaur Rahman and Prime Minister Shah Azizur Rahman to visit us and will be looking forward to welcoming them as our guests.
