

cement industry, submitted in April, 1974. He had also laid on the table of the House a copy of the Government Resolution setting out decisions of the Government on the various recommendations of the Commission. New ex-works retention prices for the existing cement units were announced. In regard to ex-works retention prices for (a) units holding industrial licences/c.o.b. licences which were in the process of being set up and were expected to come into production shortly; and (b) units which were not expected to come into production till the last couple of years of the Fifth Plan period, it was stated that the recommendations of the Commission were under examination of the Government and that decisions thereon would be announced separately. Decisions on these matters have since been taken and are indicated in the Government Resolution issued today, a copy of which is laid on the table of the House. [Placed in Library. thirty members from among themselves to serve as members of the Committee on Estimates for the term beginning on the 1st May, 1975."

Those in favour will please say 'Aye'.

AN HON. MEMBERS: Aye.

MR. SPEAKER: Those against will please say 'No'. ...

If the 'Aye' is even a little inaudible, I will declare against you. Now, those in favour will please say 'Aye'.

SEVERAL HON. MEMBERS: 'Aye'.

MR. SPEAKER: Those against will please say 'No'. There is none. So, I think the 'Ayes' have it.

The motion was adopted.
