

that it was only after the answer that I gave in the House on 7th August that the Observer published a letter of our Public Relations Officer on the 11th August for the first time after a very long time.

I hope this background will clear any misunderstanding I may have created in the minds of some Hon'ble Members for which I once again express regret.

SHRI HEM BARUA (Mangaldai): I had also written to you about this. This London Observer is consistently pursuing an anti-India posture. This paper has not excused India becoming free. In its article by Colin Legnum published on 11 August, It has called the problem of Naga hostiles as a 'problem of minority'. It is not a problem of minority. But unfortunately, our London High Commission was sleeping over this matter all through. It did not contradict the articles published in the Observer during June. Would you not direct the Minister to take action against the High Commissioner?
