COMMITTEE ON ABSENCE OF MEMBERS FROM SITTINGS OF THE HOUSE

FIRST REPORT

Shri Thirumala Rao (Kakinada): Sir, I beg to present the First Report of the Committee on Absence of Members from the Sitzings of the House.

Shri Surendranath Dwivedy (Kendrapara): As regards the discussion on emergency, I would like to submit that we had given notice under rule 184. If the discussion is on the notice under rule 184, then the House can have amendments, and we can discuss the whole matter, and it will be helpful to Government also. I do not know why they have accepted a discussion only under rule 193. Under rule 193, there can be a mere discussion only and there can be no decision by the House.

13.14 hrs.

The Lok Sabha then adjourned for Lunch till Fourteen of the Clock.

Shri A. B. Vajpayee (Balrampur): What decision is to be taken?

The Lok Sabha re-assembled after Lunch at Five Minutes past Fourteen of the Clock.

[MR. DEPUTY-SPEAKER in the Chair]

Shri Surendranath Dwivedy: The decision whether the emergency should continue or should not continue. The House should have an opportunity to express its opinion on this matter.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

The Minister of Parliamentary Affairs and Communications (Dr. Ram Subhag Singh): With your permission, Sir, I rise to announce that Government Business in this House from 26th June, 1967 up to 21st July, 1967 will consist of:—

Mr. Deputy-Speaker: Once a discussion for a short duration has been accepted under rule 193, it is difficult for me to change it now.

Shri Surendranath Dwivedy: A notice under rule 184 will give the House an opportunity to move amendments to the motion, whereas under rule 193 there will be a mere discussion only. When notices had been given under rule 184, why has a discussion been fixed under rule 193.

(1) Consideration of any partly discussed Government business carried over from today's Order Paper.
