RE. PRIVILEGE MOTIONS AND CALLING ATTENTION NOTICES

MR. SPEAKER : Before I take up the other business I would like to inform the House that I have received a number of privilege motions and calling-attention notices about Professor Thacker's resignation and the conflicting statements that are coming. Since the Minister was not here—he has come today—I have admitted a calling-attention notice for tomorrow and have not taken up immediately the privilege motions. Let us hear the Minister tomorrow as to what it is about. Perhaps, he may satisfy all of you and me too.
