Mr. Speaker: The hon. Members know that it is this House which has passed legislation on these matters. So far as the Representation of the People Act is concerned, the hon. Members know that a short time before the elections actually take place the dates are announced.

An Hon. Member: The exact date.

Mr. Speaker: That is what the Commission has to do. No Minister of the Government can do so. So far as the general impression as to when the elections will take place is concerned, as at present advised the spokesman of the Government has said that the elections will be in February or March. What is the meaning of pinning the Government to a particular date which they are not competent to say in this House?
