

Commons that there was no breach of privilege; it may be a breach of courtesy. When the House is in session all matters of policy ought to be announced first to the House. That is the rule that has been adopted for several years in this House also.

So far as this matter is concerned, the hon. Minister has explained that it is only an expansion of the NCC for which he need not come before the House for any particular sanction from time to time. So far as the announcement of the new policy is concerned, the hon. Minister says that there will be a Resolution and he will discuss it here. Even if he had made a statement, that is not a breach of privilege and no consent should be given to raise it as a matter of privilege. But all the same, I am sure the hon. Ministers will observe this decorum and courtesy to this House. So far as this matter is concerned, I am satisfied that the hon. Minister has not said anything outside the House which, even as a matter of courtesy, he ought to have placed before the House before saying it outside . . .

Shri Hem Barua (Gauhati): May I ask for a clarification? . . .

Mr. Speaker: Order, order. After hearing about a particular matter and disposing of it, I will not allow any hon. Member to get up.
