and so on. I advised him to put a question, and if I admit it, the question will be answered in due course.

There are various methods open to hon. Members. Hon. Members seem to be under the impression that adjournment motion is the only method by which every matter, including questions also, should be brought up here. I am not shutting them out in appropriate matters of public importance, but hon. Members will kindly realise that there are methods and procedures laid down.

Therefore, I have indicated what can be done. The adjournment motion is not the proper remedy.

Shri Braj Raj Singh: But may I seek one clarification?....

Mr. Speaker: Not now. If the hon. Member sends me a notice, I shall tell him what exactly is to be done, and whether he is right or wrong.

Mr. Speaker: He ought not to raise it any further. All things cannot be disposed of at one and the same moment.

Shri Braj Raj Singh: Otherwise, we shall be interfering with the work of the Supreme Court in this manner.

Shri Mahanty (Dhenkanal): I wish to raise a point of order.

Mr. Speaker: If he wishes to raise a point of order, let him give notice to me, and I shall find out, so that let me also be ready. A point of order can be raised at any time, but I must also be able to give my ruling upon that. There is no hurry.

Shri Mahanty: All right.
